A PRAYER FOR ALL THE FATHER'S

By Prophet David Owusu

A PRAYER FOR ALL THE FATHER'S

As a parent, a father is tasked to teach his child an immense number of things to help him or her grow into a responsible and contributing member of society. The values that fathers impart to their children will help shape their children's way of thinking and their interaction with others.

Aside from teaching their children the ways of the world, fathers must also teach their children the path of righteousness and fear of the Lord. By doing this and setting a good example, a child can grow in favor with God.

Proverbs 4:1 says, "Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding."

Teaching a child how to live a life in Christ will be the greatest lesson that any child will ever receive. Every father has the responsibility to make sure that his child grows in faith by providing spiritual guidance. Incorporating God in every aspect of one's life will help children understand the importance of having a divine connection with the Spirit of the Lord. When problems and challenges come their way, children will know how to call on God for refuge. And when difficult situations arise, they will seek to do what is according to God's will.

Ephesians 6:4 says, "And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

As the head of the household, a father has a lot of duties and primary matters to attend to; however, he must also continuously pray for his family. Here are prayer decrees to help fathers cope with their physical, emotional and spiritual responsibilities:

PRAYER DECREES FOR FATHERS

I declare that by the power of the Holy Ghost, there will be a cover of protection over my wife and my children

I declare in the name of Jesus that no evil shall come near our home

I declare that peace and understanding in my family shall always be restored

I declare that every negative force trying to attack my family be destroyed

Any disease that is passed on by my forefathers, I declare it shall not affect me or my children, in the name of Jesus

I declare that I will be my children's role model for walking in faith

I declare in the name of Jesus, that my children will bear the spirit of excellence in everything they do

I speak over the life of my children, that they will be filled with kindness and sympathy towards others

I declare in the name of Jesus, that I will always be able to spend time and be available for my children

I declare that my children will grow up to be faithful servants of God

I declare that no conflict will disrupt our family's bond

I declare that my relationship with my wife be strengthened, in the name of Jesus

I declare that I am favored in my business or career, in the name of Jesus

I declare in the name of Jesus, that I will be a good provider for my family

I command the spirit of poverty and hardships in my family's life to be destroyed by fire

I declare in the name of Jesus, that my family will have good health and a long happy life, in the name of Jesus.

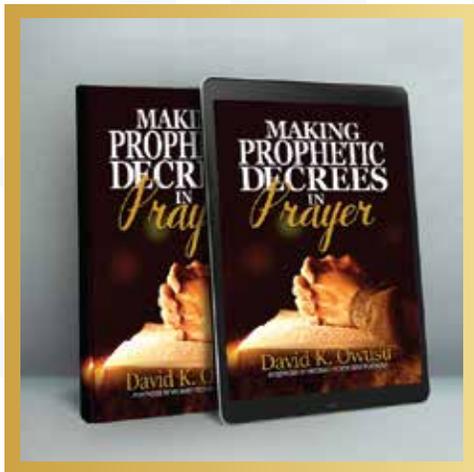

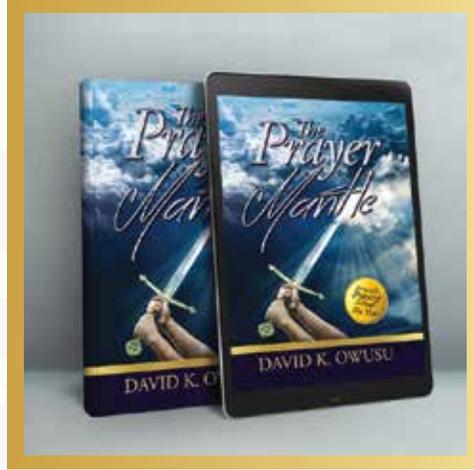

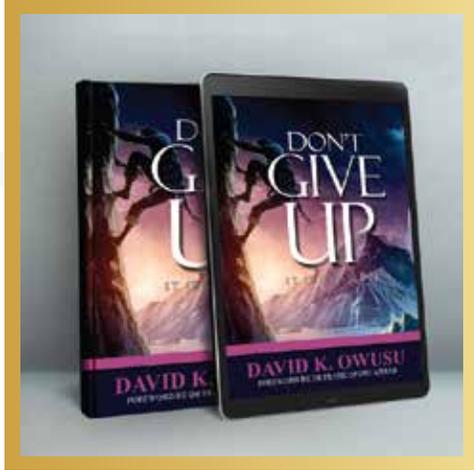

Although fathers are expected by tradition to lead their families, the burden does not rest on them alone. Each person in the family has his or her own role in giving glory to God and maintaining good personal relationships between each member of the household. The harmony found in each home is only a result of the combined effort of each family member to make their home a peaceful and loving place.
